Memorial Scholarship

$1,000 award to a 2018 GlenOak Graduate

Brian D. Beck Memorial Scholarship

The Plain Local Schools Foundation and The David Beck family are proud to establish the Brian D. Beck Memorial Scholarship. Brian was a graduate of GlenOak High School, Class of 2008. He participated in the Health Tech program under the direction of Kristen Wellman and Courtney Breon. It was during Brian’s last two years in school and through his involvement in this program that he gained the direction and desire to seek a career in a medical related field.

Funding for this scholarship is thru the annual “father’s Day 5K” road race. The race features a special award for any Dad who finishes with their son or daughter.

Brian was a very special person who could brighten up a room with his smile and laughter. He loved his friends and family and lived every day to the fullest. This scholarship is given in his honor to the person who meets the criteria below and who also shows the spirit to live their life to the fullest.

Criteria for Selection:
Minimum 3.0 GPA
Students in GlenOak Health Academy given first consideration
Acceptance at an accredited college
Career Focus in Health of Medical Field
Attendance at Father’s Day 5K race
Financial Need a consideration
