

Peter N. Cazantzes Memorial Scholarship

An educator for over 30 years in Plain Local, Pete Cazantzes dedicated his life to improving the lives of those around him. He demanded the most out of his students and gave selflessly of himself to his community. He firmly believed that your beginnings do not determine your lot in life and encouraged all students to expect more from themselves.

The Cazantzes family and friends have established this memorial scholarship to recognize a Plain Local, college-bound, graduating senior who has shown a dedication to his or her community and exemplifies good character.

No minimum GPA is required, but applicants must have displayed a commitment towards academic achievement. Heavy emphasis will be placed on the applicant’s community service and outstanding character.

Criteria for Selection:
No minimum GPA

Demonstrated excellence in academics, emphasis on community service and character

Community Service: Demonstrate a commitment to community improvement through volunteer activities

Character: Demonstrated high levels of personal character determined through essays and reference letters
